Following breakfast, we will announce the Silent Auction Winners..

The balance of the day you are on your own.

Monday

You are on your own until you decide to pack up and head home.

On Friday, Saturday and Sunday where food is available, we ask that everyone bring their own plates , utensils and drinks. Bring your own lawn chair to sit in as no tables or chairs will be set up for the purpose of eating. You are also free to participate in the meal or take your plate back to your camper.

A centralized campfire will be available, but if you wish, you can have a fire at your own camp site.
